5. Transfers

- 5.1 The CLIENT approves WORLDLINE using its parent company or any subsidiary of its parent company to carry out all or any part of the Processing activities under an Order.
- 5.2 WORLDLINE may also appoint external subcontractors in relation to the Processing of Personal Data under an Order, provided it notifies the CLIENT at least ninety (90) days in advance, in order to enable the CLIENT to evaluate the appointment of a subcontractor. The Client will have a period of thirty (30) days from the notification made by WORLDLINE to notify WORLDLINE in writing of any objections (the "Notice of Objections"). The Parties will work together in good faith to find a mutually satisfactory solution to the CLIENT objection, however the CLIENT acknowledges that WORLDLINE provides the Services under an Order as part of a shared infrastructure with its other Clients. If the Parties cannot agree on an alternative solution to such objections, the Agreement may be terminated automatically by either Party upon providing written notice to be carried out at the latest within thirty (30) days following the Notice of Objections being received. This termination will be effective after a period of thirty (30) days from the date of notification of the termination of the Agreement and the CLIENT will no longer be able to use the Services from that date. Such termination will be without any charge or liability to either Party. In the absence of a Notice of Objections from the CLIENT within the aforementioned thirty (30) day period, the Services will continue to be provided to the CLIENT by WORLDLINE under the new conditions.
- 5.3 Notwithstanding Condition 5.2, WORLDLINE shall be entitled to appoint a new or alternative subcontractor in relation to the Processing of Personal Data in cases of emergency, this being defined as circumstances which make the provision of the Services in accordance with an Order excessively onerous, from a practical or commercial perspective. In such case, WORLDLINE shall provide the notice of this change to the CLIENT as soon as reasonably practical and the provisions of Condition 5.2 regarding Notice of Objections and the CLIENT'S right to terminate shall apply in the same way.
- 5.4 In the event that WORLDLINE appoints a subcontractor in accordance with this Condition 5, to the extent that this requires the transfer of Personal Data to a country located outside both the United Kingdom and the European Economic Area which does not have an adequate level of protection, WORLDLINE undertakes to implement a management solution for this transfer in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Legislation.
- 5.5 Where WORLDLINE transfers Personal Data under a Data Transfer Agreement:
  - 5.5.1 unless the Data Transfer Agreement may be entered into by WORLDLINE as a Processor, the CLIENT hereby provides to WORLDLINE the mandate to sign on CLIENT'S behalf and for CLIENT'S account, the Data Transfer Agreement. The CLIENT agrees WORLDLINE may, on CLIENT'S behalf, agree to supplement but not vary or modify the Data Transfer Agreement;
  - 5.5.2 WORLDLINE shall be entitled to replace the Standard Contractual Clauses in the Data Transfer Agreement with any appropriate alternative transfer mechanism under the Data Protection Legislation (including new Standard Contractual Clauses) at any time;

5.5.3 in the event of a conflict between the Data Transfer Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of the Data Transfer Agreement shall prevail only to the extent that they conflict with this Agreement in relation to the relevant data transfers; and

5.5.4 WORLDLINE will not disclose or provide access to the Personal Data pursuant to a third party request unless it is required to do so by law. If it receives a third party request, WORLDLINE will:

(a) use every reasonable effort to redirect the requester to the CLIENT. WORLDLINE may share relevant contact details of the CLIENT for this purpose;

(b) promptly notify the CLIENT unless legally prohibited from doing so and, if prohibited from notifying the CLIENT, use all lawful efforts to obtain a waiver to such prohibition; and

(c) use all lawful efforts, at the CLIENT's sole cost and expense, to challenge the third party request on the basis of any legal deficiencies under the laws of the requestor or any relevant conflicts with Data Protection Legislation. Lawful efforts do not include actions that would result in civil or criminal breach or penalty such as contempt of court under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction.

5.6 In any event, to the extent that WORLDLINE appoints a subcontractor to carry out processing of Personal Data under this Condition 5 in connection with the provision of the Services to the CLIENT, obligations no less onerous than those relating to the protection of Personal Data as are set out in the Agreement will be imposed on that subcontractor, in particular with regard to providing sufficient guarantees for the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures in a manner that meets the requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. WORLDLINE remains fully liable to the CLIENT for the performance of its subcontracted obligations under an Order.
